

School & Education News

Broad Hinton

New School Building

We understand that the zealous curate of Broad Hinton, the Rev. John Thomson, formerly a Missionary in India, has already commenced rebuilding the School and Master's House of the parish, which was destroyed by fire in June last. The good cause merits every encouragement and we heartily wish it success. Mr Chivers of Devizes, we learn, has contracted for the buildings.

The Devizes & Wiltshire Gazette - September 23rd 1847