

Chilton Foliat

The Lych Gate and the rows of limes are the parish's memorial to those who died in the war 1914-18. The trees to the west of the limes each represent a life lost from the parish in the war 1939-45.

THIS LYCH GATE WAS ERECTED IN 1921 IN MEMORY OF THE MEN
FROM THIS PARISH WHO,
AT THE CALL OF THE KING
AND COUNTRY LAID
DOWN THEIR LIVES
IN THE GREAT WART
1914 – 1918
THEIR NAMES ARE RECORDED OPPOSITE

“Sons of this place
Let this of you be said.
That you who live
are worthy of your dead
These gave thei lives
that you who live may reap
A richer harvest
'ere you fall asleep”

WALTER ANGELL
CHARLES BAGGS
ARTHUR BARNES
CHARLES BECKETT
HUGH BRIANT
FELIX CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
GEORGE DEW
RICHARD DOBSON
ALFRED JOHN HARRISON
ARTHUR EDWARD HARRISON
JOSEPH HARRISON
ARCHIBALD HOBBS
JOHN HAROLD LIDDIARD
FRED LIDDIARD
REGINALD LONG
ARTHUR NELSON GEORGE MARTIN
TOM RASEY
ARTHUR RICHARD SMITH
FREDERICK WILLIAM STUBBS