

MARDEN - PEWSEY VALE.

2 miles from the Woodborough Station.

USEFUL HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE AND EFFECTS,

The property of Mrs. Robins, who is quitting: are by favour Of her instructions, arranged to be SOLD by AUCTION, BY MR. NEATE, on TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY the 22nd and 23rd September, 1863, at 12 o'clock - comprising the contents of sitting rooms, four bedrooms, kitchen, pantries, wash-house, brewhouse, and out-offices, also a capital phaeton, with head and German shutters, a superior gig and a dog cart, harness, saddles and bridles, carriage lamps, ploughs, harrows, and carts, Baker's patent mangle with mahogany beds, 3 single and 3 double fowling pieces, blunderbusses, pistols, balance iron roller and stone roller, iron bound casks and brewing utensils, in first-rate condition, shower and other baths, very good flour and corn bins, carpenter's bench and tools, 8 dozen sacks, and a variety of useful effects enumerated in Catalogues, to be had of the Auctioneer, Pewsey and Marlborough, 3 days prior to the Sale.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette 17 September 1863