The Right Rev William Awdry, formerly Bishop of South Tokyo, was a member of the well-known Wilts family, being the fourth of the ten sons of the late Sir John Wither Awdry of Notton and Shaw Hill. His brother Mr Charles Awdry, now of Market Lavington, is now head of the family of the Awdrys of Notton, who are, of course, related to the Awdrys of Seend, The deceased, like his brother Charles, married a daughter of the late Right Rev George Moberly, Bishop of Salisbury. But leaves no family. Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 6 January 1910
