

CORONERS INQUESTS

Wilts Militia

And on Monday last another inquisition was taken, before the same coroner, (Mr Newlyn), on the body of Robert Jenkins, a private belonging to the Wiltshire supplementary Militia, who was found frozen to death. Verdict, Died through the inclemency of the weather. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 7 January 1799