

Memorial Plaque in the Parish Church

Monkton Farleigh

Erected to the Memory of Anne, The Beloved Wife of Wade Browne Esq.

And Eldest Daughter of Mr Edward Pennefather Queen's Counsel and late Solicitor General for Ireland.

Talented, gentle, compassionate & self-denying

she was a most affectionate wife and mother, and from her childhood a willing and devoted servant of God.

Altogether relying on the Merits and Intercession of her Saviour, she departed this life in perfect peace at Monkton Farleigh House in this parish on the 29th day of September 1837 aged 29 years.

“A woman that feareth the Lord she shall be praised.

She shall rejoice in time to come”