

To be LETT

And entered upon at Michaelmas Next.
In one, two or three Farms.

TWELVE Hundred Acres of inclosed Arable, Meadow, and Pasture Land, all in good Condition; situate at Fosbury, in the Parish of Titcombe, in the County of Wilts, twelve miles from Newbury, twelve from Marlborough, eight from Andover, and five from Hungerford, all good Market Towns. – There are already two very good Farm Houses, Barns, and other necessary Buildings upon the Premises; and if the Lands should be divided into Farms, another good Farm House, with Barns, and all other necessary Conveniences, will be erected for a Tenant.

For further Particulars enquire of Mr. Rush, at Marlborough; or of Mr. Benwell, at Marlborough-house, in Pall-Mall, London.

The Salisbury Journal, 20 September 1762