

Upton Lovell

SOUTH WILTS CHAMBER OF AGRICULTURE

THE AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS BILL

A largely attended meeting of this Chamber was held at the Bath Arms Hotel, Warminster, on Saturday, when the subject for discussion was the new "Agricultural Holdings (England) Bill". The Right Hon. the Earl of Pembroke, President of the Chamber, occupied the chair, and amongst those present were:- Mr C. N. P. Phipps, M.P., Mr G. P. Fuller, Mr W. Stratton (Kingston Deverell), Mr Robert Melsome (Upton Lovell), Mr W. Melsome (Maddington), Mr Richard Melsome (Stockton), Mr Ingram (Wyllye), Mr Moore (Knook), Mr Harding (Codford), Mr T. Herrington (Kilmington), Mr Gifford (Knook), Mr Coombs (Corton), Mr T. Rugg (Corton), Mr Green (Salterton), Mr White (Charnidge), Mr John Marsh (Devizes), Mr Gibbs (Devizes), Mr E. S. Mackrell (Warminster), Mr H. Bladworth (Warminster), Mr John Scott (Upton Lovell), Mr Swayne (Langford), Mr Carey (Salisbury), Mr Carpenter (Burcombe), Mr Flower (Chilmark), Mr E. Lywood (Maddington), Mr F. Morgan (Warminster), Mr G. Rugg (Sutton), Mr Wiltshire (Deverill), Mr Willis (Bapton), Mr T. Parham (Deverill), Mr G. Parham (Gillingham), Mr J. R. White, sen. (Zeals), Mr J. White (warminster), Mr J. R. White, jun., hon. sec., Mr J. Parham (Sutton), Mr W. P. T. Wyld (Warminster), Mr G. Blake (Chitterne), Mr S. Jefferies (Deverill), and Mr W. Pullin (Warminster).

(Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette – Thursday 31 May, 1883)
