

Harnham Players' Passion Play

----- oo0oo -----

'In the House of The Other Mary'

This evening (Good Friday) the Harnham Players' Guild will give the third performance of a passion play at St. George's Church West Harnham. Two performances were given on Palm Sunday, the first in the afternoon, being a special one for children.

The play, dealing with the first Holy Week and Easter is entitled 'In the House of the Other Mary,' and was written by Etheldred Waddy. A prologue with additional material have been written by the producer, Mrs. M. A. Body. The local cast perform anonymously.

The scenes are interspersed by Bible readings and solos by Mrs. Elsie Butt and Mr. Roy Webber. Opening prayers are offered by the Rev. A. J. Burgess (vicar), and the audience join in the singing of hymns at the beginning and end of the performance.

The play is staged at the front of the raised chancel.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 11 April 1952