

Westbury Funeral Report

Amy Beatrice Webb

The death on Monday in the Yeatman Hospital, where she had undergone a serious operation, of Mrs Amy Beatrice Webb, wife of Mr E Webb of Raleigh Place, Westbury, caused deep regret to many friends of the family in the town. Mrs Webb, who was 57 years of age, was held in warm regard. Her husband has been in charge of the practical work of the foundations for the Lady Chapel Sanctuary, and the workers there will remember her kindly services in providing refreshments for them. To Mr Webb and the family the deepest sympathy has been extended. - The body was taken to Seend, near Trowbridge, her native place, for interment yesterday (Thursday).

Western Gazette Friday 5 October 1928