

Leading Aircraftman Jesse Kenneth Beech, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Beech of 7 High Street, Hungerford and Miss Joyce Mable Mead were married on Thursday of last week. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mead of 9 Broad View, Hungerford. The Rev. H. J. Sadd (circuit minister) conducted the service at the Bath Road Methodist Church. Mr W. Champ, at the organ, played the wedding march as the bride entered the church. The bride was arrayed in ankle length Ivory satin with white satin shoes. Her head dress was a wreath of roses and veil and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and red anemones. Given away by her father, she was attended by two bridesmaids, the Misses Sheila Williams and Christine Bellingham. Miss Williams was dressed in green and carried a posy of pink chrysanthemums, while Miss Bellingham was attired in lemon. Mr. P. C. Winchcombe, of Bristol, was the best man. A large number of guests gathered later at the reception held at the bride's home. The happy couple left afterwards for their honeymoon at Wootton Bassett, where the bridegroom was employed in civil life.
