SALISBURY AND WINCHESTER JOURNAL,

The Hampshire Chronicle

1800-1829

Quarter Sessions Winchester Hampshire. Samuel Waters, of Ludgershall, in Wilts, to be continued in custody until he finds sureties for his good behaviour, articles of the peace having been exhibited against him for threatening to take away the life of James Higgens, of Andover.

Hampshire Chronicle 11 October 1802

On Monday last was married at Ludgershall, in this county, Charles Payne, Esq., of Shirehampton, in the county of Gloucester, to Miss Albinia Selwyn, eldest daughter of the Rev John Selwyn, Rector of Ludgershall. Salisbury and Winchester Journal 18 October 1802

- Sunday was married at St Mary's, Stoke Newington, Wm Everett, Esq., son of T Everett, Esq., MP for Ludgershall, to Miss Ellis, of Palantine-house, Stoke Newington, only daughter of the late T Ellis, Esq., of the same place. Hampshire Chronicle 12 November 1804
- On the 26th ult. Thomas Tarrant of Ludgershall was committed to County Gaol, Salisbury, charged with having stolen at Devizes a bank note, value fifteen pounds, from the house of Richard Sleat, of Ludgershall aforesaid. Salisbury and Winchester Journal 11 November 1805
- 1806 At the election for the borough of Ludgershall, Wilts, this day, Thomas Everett, and Magena Dorrient Magens, Esqrs., were re-chosen without opposition.

 Hampshire Chronicle 03 November 1806
- Wanted a Smith that can work at all sorts of work in the Husbandry line, and one that understands Shoeing in all the branches. Any person this will suit may have constant employ. Enquire at the Queen's Head, at Ludgershall, or at the Printing Office.
 Salisbury and Winchester Journal 17 August 1807
- To be sold by auction, on the premises (for the benefit of the creditors) by T Rawlins, on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, the 28th, 29th and 30th of June, 1809.

All the stock in trade, household furniture, crop of corn, sainfoin, rye-grass, farming utensils, &c. of Mr Walter Smith, grocer, linen-draper, haberdasher, hosier, &c. Ludgershall; comprising printed cottons and lines, plain and figured muslins, handkerchiefs, dimities, calicos, calamancos, waistcoating, dowlasses, checks, baize, flannels, linseys, cotton and worsted hose, ribbon, silk, threads, bindings, laces, pins, needles, hats, sugar, spices, tobacco and snuff, hemp seed, candles, pattens and clogs, shop paper, tea canisters of all sizes, ditto scales and weights, excellent counters, glass cases, nests of drawers, &c &c.

The Farming Stock consists of one acre of wheat, 2½ of oats, five acres of sainfoin, and upwards of one acre of hop and rye-grass; a horse and cart, milch cow, cart-harness, plough and tackle, harrows, sieves, rudders, &c. The Household Goods comprise the usual articles in mahogany, &c., with seven stocks of bees, quantity of faggots and numerous other articles. The sale to begin at eleven o'clock each day. The furniture &c. to be sold on Friday. Salisbury and Winchester Journal 26 June 1809

A grand match of Cricket was played on Tuesday, on Pirram Down, between eleven of the Lower Collingbourne and eight of the borough of Ludgershall, with two Hampshire players and one of the North Tidworth, which was won by the former, with seven wickets to go down. Thomas A Smith, esq., sent two tents for the use of the company on the occasion.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 09 October 1809

On Thursday, died in Bedford-square, London, Thomas Everett, Esq., partner with the late Nathaniel Newnman, Esq., banker, in Mansion-house-street, and MP for Ludgershall, in Wiltshire. Hampshire Chronicle 12 February 1810

Joseph Hague Everett, Esq., of Sparsholt House, Berks, is elected Member of Parliament for the borough of Ludgershall, in this county, in the room of Thomas Everett, Esq., deceased. Salisbury and Winchester Journal 05 March 1810

Cattle taken into Straw-Yard, at Biddesden Farm, from this time to Lady-day, or longer if required, plentifully supplied with good straw, and property attended to, at two shillings per head per week. Biddesden is in the parish of Ludgershall, Wilts, and six miles from Andover.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 10 December 1810

- County Sessions, Salisbury. Jos Perdue and Sam Crouch, for rioting at Ludgershall, to be imprisoned three months and find sureties for future good behaviour.

 Salisbury and Winchester Journal 10 April 1815
- Committed to Fisher Gaol. James Richardson and John Holmes, jun., labourers, of Ludgershall, charged on the oath of William Morey, of Collingbourne, turner, on a violent suspicion of having robbed him on the highway.

 Salisbury and Winchester Journal 11 December 1815
- To be sold by auction, by T Rawlins, at the Crown Inn, Ludgershall, on Wednesday the 13th of August, 1817. The household furniture, plough, harrows, roller, dairy utensils, and other effects, of Mr James Smith, Collingbourne Lodge (removed for convenience of sale to the above Inn). Sale to begin at one o'clock (part article only). Salisbury and Winchester Journal 11 August 1817
- Committed to Fisherton Gaol. Daniel Dobbs and William Cook, both of Ludgershall, labourers, charged with stealing a lamb belonging to Henry Pike, at Collingborne Ducis, on the 17th November last. The said Daniel Dobbs and Wm Cook are also charged with stealing a sheep belong to Jacob Crook at Ludgershall on 2d Dec last. The said Daniel Dobbs and Wm Cook are also charged with stealing a quantity of lead affixed to the parish church of Ludgershall, on the 24th June last. George Lansley, of Ludgershall, labourer, an accessary, admitted as king's evidence against Dobbs and Cook, in the three charges above mentioned. Salisbury and Winchester Journal 24 January 1820
- On Thursday, the lst inst. the annual custom of Maying was held at the village of Redenham, near Appleshaw (Hampshire). A handsome garland was erected, and a genteel company assembled, who joined in the merry dance and other innocent amusements, until the close of the evening. Everything passed with cheerfulness and good humour, until a party of evil-disposed persons arrived from the town of Ludgershall, who carried away the Maypole and garland in triumph, and placed it near the Market-cross in Ludgershall, where they danced around it the next (Friday) evening.

On Saturday, about midnight, some persons bent upon mischief, committed various depredations, from the Andover turnpike road, through Appleshaw, Redenham, to Biddesden-house, in the way to Ludgershall, by breaking windows, destroying and removing gates, stiles, rails, faggot piles, and everything that came in their way. It is strongly suspected that the same persons who carried away the Maypole and garlands from Redenham, were the common disturbers on that night.

Rewards of ten guineas, five guineas, &c. are offered for the discovery of the offenders so disturbing the public at such an unusual hour. A large stone was thrown through the chamber window of a gentleman in Appleshaw, which nearly struck him while lying in his bed, but happily no further damage ensued than breaking the glass of the chamber window. A window of the public-house at Redenham was also broken, as were several gates belonging to Mr Everett, of Biddesden House. It is to be hoped the handsome rewards offered by different persons will be the means of bring the offenders to justice.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 12 May 1823

- The Rev John Pannell, A.M. has been instituted to the Rectory of Ludgershall, Wilts, on the presentation of Sir James Graham, Bart.

 Salisbury and Winchester Journal 22 March 1824
- On Friday se'nnight four tons of coals were distributed amongst the poor of Ludgershall, bequeathed by the will of the late Mrs Everett, of Bedford-square, London. At Christmas last, Mr Everett, of Biddesden House, son of the above charitable lady, distributed amongst the poor families of Ludgershall a liberal supply of beef, bread and coals. A great benefit is also extended to the humbler class in Ludgershall by two excellent free schools established by Mr Everett, Sir Sandford Graham, and the Rev Allen Hutchins.

 Salisbury and Winchester Journal 27 February 1826
- On Monday last, being Waterloo day, the Waterloo Friendly Society held their 8th annual meeting at the Crown Inn, Ludgershall. The morning was ushered in by the ringing of bells and other demonstrations of joy. The members attended divine service and heard a most appropriate discourse, delivered by the Rev A B Hutchins, from the 18th chap. of Proverbs, 24th verse.

The members afterwards partook of a very excellent dinner served by Mr Lansley. After dinner the members paraded the streets with their banners and an excellent band of music and the day was spent with friendship, mirth and lovalty.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal 25 June 1827